

The Syracuse Chorale, a non-profit association founded in 1953, contributes to the cultural life of Central New York by performing excellent choral music. The Chorale seeks a dynamic Music Director to lead this non-auditioned, community choral group of 60-75 dedicated members. The Director will: plan programs, rehearse weekly (Tuesday, 6:30-9:30), and conduct the group in three major concerts per year; collaborate with other community groups and make recommendations for fundraising; take a progressive view of the teaching role of the Director, emphasizing development of members' musical skills. Salary: Negotiable, $8000-$9500, contingent on experience (vocal pedagogy/choral conducting). Submit letter of interest and resume to: Cynthia J. Benton, President, Syracuse Chorale Board of Directors (Cynthia.benton@cortland.edu; 607.749.4720), P.O. Box 402, Syracuse, NY 13206. Interviews begin June 10, 2015; position open until filled.

June 2, 2015